

Using Genograms to Frame and Address Divorce and Step-family Conflicts

Leslie Todd, LCSW, ACSW

Friday, May 17, 2019

8:30 am – 12:15 pm

3.0 CEUs applied for with NASW-LA and LCA

8:30-9:00 Registration and continental breakfast

9:00-10:00 Drawing simple and complex genograms: red-flag patterns

10:00-10:15 Break

10:15-11:00 Using the two-household genogram to induce logical thinking, cooperation, and educate client(s) about family structures and roles

11:00-12:15 Role plays and fishbowl: Assessing roles and relationships, triangles, cut-offs, and role stressors

Place: Leslie's office: Strategies For Change, 7931 Picardy Ave., Ste. C, BR 70809

Cost: $70 (includes breakfast, snacks)

Registration: Go to leslietodd.com and click on "Book Online." This workshop is limited to 15 people to keep it interactive and fun. Sorry, no refunds, but if you have an emergency, you can apply this credit to another of my 2019 workshops.

Leslie Todd, LCSW, ACSW has thirty years of experience as a therapist, teacher and workshop presenter. For the last twenty years, she has worked with divorce and stepfamily issues in various Family Court Roles, including custody evaluator, court-appointed therapist, mediator, and parenting coordinator. She has presented workshops on two-household genograms in seven states and at international AFCC conferences. For more information, see www.leslietodd.com